

Missouri Drone Journalism Workshop

Tucker Forum at the Donald W. Reynolds Journalism Institute
9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. on Saturdays, Oct. 8

SCHEDULE

- 9:00 a.m......Applications of Unmanned Aircraft
An introduction on drone use across disciplines such as agriculture, real estate, construction survey and utility inspections.
- 9:30 a.m......Remote Pilot Airman License
An overview of the new FAA Part 107 regulations for commercial use of small unmanned aircraft and the requirements to earn a license.
- 10:30 a.m......Break (refreshments provided)
- 10:50 a.m...... Safety, Risks, Airspace, Weather
A review of the study topics required to pass the FAA Remote Pilot knowledge test.
- NoonLunch on your own
- 1:30 p.m. Videography Techniques
Classic cinematography and how those techniques are applied to unmanned aircraft for visual impact.

2:30 p.m.Break / travel time
"Marching Mizzou" band practice lot (see map below)

- 3:00 p.m.Flight Training
Two hours of intensive hands-on exercises that provide the necessary skills in basic and intermediate flight maneuvers.
- 5:00-ish p.m. . Concludes